Since the fax we received does not relate to work being done by Dornbos Press, Inc., we assumed you are a law abiding citizen/company and submitted it for the only service we offer by fax.

Title 47, Section 227 of the U.S. Code prohibits the sending by facsimile any material advertising the commercial availability of property, goods or services without the recipient's express permission. The code provides that if such transmission is made without the recipient's express permission, an action is allowable to recover the greater of: actual monetary damages or $500.

Please make your intentions clear by either paying the invoice amount above, or paying the smallest amount possible ($500.00) for violating the junk fax law. Failure to do so within 7 days may subject you to action for recovery and/or being reported to the various credit associations with which we maintain credit reporting reciprocity.

Act now to protect your credit rating, send your check promptly.
